“AN INTRODUCTION TO CHILD AND FAMILY TEAMS: A CROSS SYSTEM TRAINING FROM THE FAMILY’S PERSPECTIVE”

PRESENTED BY: COMMUNITIES CARING FOR FAMILIES and Crossroads Behavioral Healthcare

OVERVIEW OF TRAINING OBJECTIVES: This is an experiential training developed in partnership with families in North Carolina. The goal is to provide an overview of Child and Family Team meetings from the family’s perspective.

Families, through focus groups and through direct involvement in curriculum writing, provided essential guidance in the development of this training. The training is grounded in their knowledge and experience, especially regarding how to make Child and Family Teams a successful way to support the active involvement of families, children and youth in planning for the family.

This training seeks to reinforce the idea of “one family, one plan” by addressing Child and Family Teams through the lens of multiple systems as they affect families in their everyday lives. It is encouraged that both agency representatives and parents/family members attend this training.

Participants should come ready to be actively engaged in the process for four full afternoons. The majority of the training will be presented through the experience of mock Child and Family Team meeting role-plays. At various times throughout the training, participants will serve as members of the meeting process and as observers of the meeting process. Trainers will provide opportunities for connection, introspection, conversation and exploration about how to best bring families to the table.

The Grant Training Center
Professional Grant Development Workshop
Master the techniques of writing superior and winning proposals
Proposal Writing I: September 15 - 17, 2010
To be held at:
North Carolina State University
Raleigh, North Carolina

Sponsored by: The Grant Training Center

This intensive three-day grant proposal workshop is geared for: 1) those who wish to strengthen their grant writing skills and 2) beginners who wish to acquire and master the techniques of preparing, writing and winning proposals from various funding agencies. The center of attention will be on how to effectively tell the story that leads to funding, be it for the researcher in the sciences and social sciences, educator and non-profit professional.

Participants Will Learn How To:

- Comprehend the diversity of the grant funding community
 - Research and identify potential funding sources
 - Create the right fit with the funding agency
 - Address the guidelines of proposals
- Identify and effectively write the key elements of a proposal
- Integrate each component of the grant into the final product
 - Develop focused and realistic budgets
 - Package professional grants submissions

Space is limited, and since this class fills-up quickly, it is on a first-come-first serve basis.

Workshop fee: $595.00, including tuition, materials, certificate of completion, and continental breakfast. Rebate of $50.00 per person is given for two or more registrants from the same organization.
